Gospel (Matthew 20: 1 –16)

SUNDAY MASS READING & GOSPEL

A Reading from the letter of Saint Paul to the Thessalonians. (1 Thessalonians 2:1-13)

For you yourselves know, brothers, that our reception among you was not without effect. Rather, after we had suffered and been insolently treated, as you know, in Philippi, we drew courage through our God to speak to you the gospel of God with much struggle. Our exhortation was not from delusion or impure motives, nor did it work through deception. But as we were judged worthy by God to be entrusted with the gospel, that is how we speak, not as trying to please human beings, but rather God, who judges our hearts. Nor, indeed, did we ever appear with flattering speech, as you know, or with a pretext for greed--God is witness--nor did we seek praise from human beings, either from you or from others, although we were able to impose our weight as apostles of Christ. Rather, we were gentle among you, as a nursing mother cares for her children. With such affection for you, we were determined to share with you not only the gospel of God, but our very selves as well, so dearly beloved had you become to us. You recall, brothers, our toil and drudgery. Working night and day in order not to burden any of you, we proclaimed to you the gospel of God. You are witnesses, and so is God, how devoutly and justly and blamelessly we behaved toward you believers. As you know, we treated each one of you as a father treats his children, exhorting and encouraging you and insisting that you conduct yourselves as worthy of the God who calls you into his kingdom and glory. And for this reason we too give thanks to God unceasingly, that, in receiving the word of God from hearing us, you received not a human word but, as it truly is, the word of God, which is now at work in you who believe.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to Saint Luke. (Luke 10:38-42)

As they continued their journey he entered a village where a woman whose name was Martha welcomed him. She had a sister named Mary (who) sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak. Martha, burdened with much serving, came to him and said, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving? Tell her to help me." The Lord said to her in reply, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her."

The Spirituality of Brother Estephan (God sees me)

Brother Estephan was distinguished for the silence of his presence while reflecting on his discrete life with Christ, tolerant with his pain, never complaining of any hurt or sickness, abstaining and refraining especially in his food. He was content as he does not seek for anything except to live in the presence of God (who observes me), happy in his life--which was reflected vivacity in his smart work, in his behavior, fair, lover of equality giving every man his right, so he was respected and loved by those who worked with him. He was a man of prayer, his affection to the land which was a spring of holiness and a source of spirituality for him.
